

AFT WASHINGTON RETIREE CHAPTER BYLAWS AMENDMENT

May 19, 2017

Amendment 1: To amend Article VI, Section 1, changing the wording from an annual meeting to a biennial meeting. With the following provisos:

1. That the amendment will take effect at the adjournment of the annual meeting.
2. That the secretary will be given the power to make grammatical and typographical corrections as needed.

1 Presently reads:
 2 Section 1. Meetings. A chapter meeting shall be held
 3 annually in the spring. This meeting shall be deemed the 4 biennial meeting. Additional meetings may be held as well.
 5 Meetings shall be called by the President, the Executive
 6 Board, or upon the written request of ten (10) members in 7 good standing.

Will read if amended:
Section 1. Meetings. A chapter meeting shall be held biennially in the spring of odd-numbered years. Additional meetings may be held as well. Meetings shall be called by the President, the Executive Board, or upon the written request of ten (10) members in good standing.

Rationale: This amendment will be in keeping with the change that AFT Washington has done for their convention.

Conforming Amendment: To amend Article VI, Sections 2 and 3 by striking the word annual and inserting the word biennial.

With the following provisos:

1. That the amendment will take effect at the adjournment of the annual meeting.
2. That the secretary will be given the power to make grammatical and typographical corrections as needed.

1 Presently reads:
 2 Section 2 and 3. annual meeting

Will read if amended:
Section 2 and 3. biennial meeting

Rationale: To conform to the change of Amendment 1.
