

We are now accepting applications for the 2014-2015 AFT Washington/Schwerin Campbell Barnard Iglitzin & Lavitt Scholarship Awards!

The AFT Washington/Schwerin Campbell Barnard Iglitzin & Lavitt Scholarship was initiated in 2005 in partnership with Schwerin Campbell Barnard Iglitzin & Lavitt LLP, a Seattle-based labor law firm. The award was established in recognition of our close alliance working toward improved education and labor rights for the working people of our state and the members of AFT Washington.

Our ninth year offering education scholarships

Together, our organizations typically make available three or four $1,000 education scholarships to eligible applicants who are AFT Washington members in good standing, or spouses, domestic partners, children, or dependents of AFT Washington members in good standing. Qualified applicants must plan to attend an institution of higher education during the 2014-2015 academic year for the purpose of obtaining a degree or certification. A scholarship committee reviews the applications for eligibility and determines

To date, 27 students have been awarded $1,000 education scholarships: Kiyoshi Shikuma, Peggy Butler, Micaela Baca, and Sean Connor (2006-07); Natalie Mohsenian, Claire Min-Vendetti, Colin Nix, and Misa Shikuma (2008-09); Leanne Sebren, Colleen Murphy-Carey, Kellie Blair, and Theresa Anderton (2009-10); Azalia Koestler, Joseph Toth, Chelsea Ruggiero-Diehl, and Megan Sullivan (2010-11); Casey Croshaw, Azalea Koestler, and Chelsea Ruggiero-Diehl (2011-12); Caleb
