PROPOSED BYLAWS AMENDMENT

To amend Article V, Section 1. Officers - by inserting after the sentence ending in "and five (5) directors" the following sentence: "If the chapter so desires, the same person may hold both offices of Secretary and Treasurer."

The following chart is presented to put the proposed amendment into the context of the bylaws. The actual bylaw amendment that will be voted on is above.

As the bylaws presently read:

Section 1. Officers. There shall be the following officers: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and five (5) Directors. These officers shall perform the duties prescribed by these bylaws and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the Chapter.

If amended, the bylaws will read:

Section 1. Officers. There shall be the following officers: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and five (5) Directors. If the chapter so desires, the same person may hold both offices of Secretary and Treasurer. These officers shall perform the duties prescribed by these bylaws and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the Chapter.
