

The 2024-2025 AFT Washington/ Barnard Iglitzin & Lavitt Scholarship

Eligibility Criteria and Application Guidelines

The AFT Washington/Barnard Iglitzin & Lavitt Scholarship was initiated in partnership with Barnard Iglitzin & Lavitt LLP, a Seattle-based labor law firm, in recognition of our close alliance in working toward improved education and labor rights for the working people of Washington State and the members of AFT Washington.

Eligibility Criteria

- Applicant must be either a current member in good standing of an AFT Washington local or chapter, or the spouse/domestic partner, or child/dependent of a current member.
- Applicant must plan to pursue education and/or career development goals at an institution of higher education during the 2024-2025 academic year for the purpose of obtaining a degree or certification.

Application Guidelines

Each applicant must submit an application packet, which must be received by 11:59 PM on Sunday, August 11, 2024, to meet the application deadline. Completed application packets include the following:

- Completed Scholarship Application Form. Please make sure responses are legible. Any application that cannot be read will not be considered.
- A minimum of two recommendations addressing your abilities and your work or study experience.
- A copy of your most recent transcript(s) - high school or college, whichever is available.
- A personal essay on the topic of how your education and career goals will enable you to contribute to the labor movement and improve the lives of working people. Addressing the topic is extremely important and will make a difference in how your application is evaluated. Your personal essay should be 400-600 words in length, typed, and double spaced with standard sized font and margins. Essays will be held to a college-level standard for accurate spelling, sentence structure, and grammar.
